cago to the policy of immediate mun cipal ownership of public utilities. The candidates on the Democratic whilom base-ball star, was elected City Clerk.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 4.—A political tornado to-day overwhelmed one of the most ruggedly unique leaders in the country Incidentally the Republican party met defeat in a memorable effort to capture the mayoralty of Chicago. As a direct result, the city is officially committed to the policy of the quickest possible cessation of private franchises for public utilities. Municipal ownership is especially threatening street car lines, valued high the millions.

After winning successively four remark against the regular Republican party against the regular republicant party organization here, John Mayagard Harlan, son of Associate Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court, was to-day a loser as Republican candidate for Mayor. The defeat is attributed to extraordinary causes, starting with political revenge and taking in a wide sweep, embracing the most up-to-date socialism as a factor. The victor is Judge Edward F. Dunne, Democrat.

Picturesque Contest.

Picturesque Contest.

Seldom, if ever, has Chicago witnessed a more lively, picturesque contest. Today, particularly, the city was hideous with the ringing of cow bells and the roar of cannon crackers.

It was a raw, blustery day, gloomy and cold for the most part, until about the hour for the close of voting. The sun-burst then was not halled cheerfully by the Republicans, who 'felt that even in the matter of election weather the party had been under a severe handicap.

Appeals to fear of domination by corporate wealth appeared to sway many voters, and perhaps more than any other influence was incorrectly gaused by the Republicans. Harlan had been savagely harassed during the campaign as the reputed representative of Wall Street interests, with the intention of fastening burdensome franchise grants upon the city. The Republicans, however, had figured that the voters susceptible to appeals of this kind would support the socialist candidate, Collins, and that losses, if any, to the Republicans, would be more than made up by Harlan's old-time admirers among independent voters. Estimates, however, of $0,000 votes as the total for Collins, Socialist, fell woeffully short. The chief error in this respect was apparently in regard to the amount of loss from the Democrats to the Socialists. The advocacy of immediate muintelpal ownership, radically voteed by Judge Dunne, out-fleroded any move by Collins.

Calculations upon colored voters were another source of error in Republicans. burdensome franchise grants upon the city. The Republicans, however, had figured that the voters susceptible to appeals of this kind would support the so-clailst candidate. Collins, and that losses, if any, to the Republicans would be more than made up by Harian's old-tine admirers among independent voters. Estimates, however, or 50,000 votes as the total for Collins, Socialist, fell woefully short. The chief error in this respect was apparently in regard to the amount of loss from the Democrats to the Socialists. The advecacy of immediate municipal ownership, radically voted by Judge Dunne, out-Heroded any move by Collins.

Calculations upon colored voters were another source of error in Republicans where Afro-Americans are numerous, gave as severe iolit. Republicans campaign amanagers. The most plaurible explanation was that Judge Dunne, from the bench in years had, shown an unexample applit of 'fairness toward colored men and women in exigences when freedom.

DIVERSITY OF OPINION AS TO THE BURNING

Excitement Over the Tragedy Is High and the Husband Seems Heart-Broken-No Detective Appointed by the Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 4.It is believed to-night that an arrest will be made to-morrow as the outcome of the burning of Mrs. W. J. Tnomson and her two children in their home near Shadwell early Saturday morning. The coroner's inquest will be continued tonorrow. It is said that important evidence will be adduced, and that it will under suspicion. There has from the first been the greatst diversity of opinion as to whether the burning was accidental. If incendiary, there is no doubt that murder was intended. Circumstantial Evidence.

Circumstantial Evidence.

The evidence, all circumstantial, of course, is by no means sufficient as yet to establish a crime. Mr. R. L. Smith, of Richmond, a brother of Mrs, Thomson, accompanied up Mr. Williah Butler, brother-in-law of the dead woman, were up to-day, doing all possible to discover a clue to the incendiary and murder, if crime was committed. No material progress had been made in this direction late this afternoon, so far as the public knows. The court authorities deny that a detective has been put on the case, but the report that an arrest will be made to-morrow is credited.

*Excitement High.

Excitement over the burning is still high. The husband is said to appear heartbroken. He spent the night at the flows of a neighbor the night of the fire, and was almost overcome when the fire, and was almost overcome when the rural carrier informed him the next morning of the tragic death of the wife and children. Mrs. Thomson's son by her first marriage, a young man probably twenty years of age, was also away when the fire occurred. This young man's testimony that his step-father was not good to his wife and had deserted her, is damaging.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Butler Confident That Mrs. Thompson and Children Were Murdered.

Robert Lee Smith, a brother, and Wilam Butler, a brother-in-law of Mrs. V. J. Thompson, reached the city last light from Chariottesville, where they had been to investigate the burning of Mrs. Thompson and her two small chilnear Shadwell early on Saturday

They do not hesitate to say that they believe that the woman and her children

Story of the Fire.

Story of the Fire.

This is the story of the fire as they learned it from the Shadwell people.

About 4 o'clock Saturday morning Dr. and Mrs. Thurman, of Keswick, were awakened by a servant and told that a house was on fire some miles away on the mountain. That fixes the time of the burning. Early Saturday morning two cl. Firen. George and Annie Spruce, approached the smouldering cabin and saw the half burnt body of Mrs. Thompson. Her body was in one room; the ashes of the children's bodies were in another; and noty near where the beds had been placed. The dend woman's head was found some distance from her body, and in a position, so they say, that absolutely proves that the head was severed from the body.

"We have reached a strange stage in American politics," he declared, "when the upper branch of the Federal Legistature is irresponsive to the wishes of the people." Then he asked: "Is the body liself what it used to be?"

"How many of its members to-day are in court charged with orimes and misdemeanors?

"In Utah, one is charged with bigamy, and somewhere else, another with graft, and still another is pleading the statute of limitations against the crime for which he stands indicted."

The Governor spoke at some length in denunciation of the alleged methods employed in various States to corrupt Legislatures and to sopid the agents of corporate greed to the exalted legislative body and then he asked how much the people had to do with the election of Quay in Pennsylvania or Platt in New York.

Plutocracy vs. Democracy.

The great issue of the day he thought was plutocracy vs. democracy, and he declared that democracy meant a fair chance for every man in life, no matter how poor or humble he might be. The speaker called attention to the fact that even a Republican President had pointed out the unwarranted gower of great corporate wealth, and he declared that public service corporations should not be permitted practically to fix their own rates. "They procure their powers from the people," he said, "and should be held responsible for the exercise of these powers."
